5 ROBERT DAVID STEELE, et al. Case No.: 3:17-cv-00601-MHL
6 Plaintiff.
7 vs.
8 JASON GOODMAN, et al.
9 Defendant

10 DEFENDANT'S CERTIFICATION

11 DEFENDANT'S CERTIFICATION
12

13 Defendant Jason Goodman Pro Se respectfully submits this certification confirming that 14 Defendant has provided to Plaintiff all documents that were submitted to the Court including 15 supplemental material provided to the court in mailings as well as with this certification.

17 1. Defendant has provided to Plaintiff a true and exact copy of all documents submitted
18 to the Court at the July 15, 2020 Show Cause Hearing as well as documents submitted 19 in separate mailings on July 17, 2020, July 19, 2020, July 21, 2020 and additional 20 supplemental documents provided to the court along with this certification.
21

22 2. On July 16, 2020, Defendant emailed Plaintiff a file, titled "Steele v Goodman 23 Discovery.zip", containing documents provided to the Court at the July 15, 2020
24 hearing along with an index, titled "Discovery 26a", which was filed with the Clerk.
25

26 3. On July 19, 2020, in an ongoing good faith effort to provide a more manageable and 27 useful document from which Plaintiff could more easily access information.
28

Defendant provided an updated file titled "Steele v Goodman Defendant 26a with

DEFENDANT'S CERTIFICATION - 1

1 Index.pdf". This PDF included linked bookmarks to each subdocument to facilitate 2 navigation of Plaintiff's preferred electronic delivery format as well as additional 3 emails from Manuel Chavez III. The supplemented document consisted of 1.256
4 pages. True and exact printed copies of the supplemental Chavez emails were 5 provided to the court via FedEx tracking #771040527120 and arrived July 21, 2020.

6 4. Concurrent with delivery of the supplemented document and in deference to the 7 court's stated displeasure with the ongoing disputes between parties, Defendant
8 requested a phone conversation to resolve outstanding Discovery disputes. Defendant 9 made this request specifically to address all outstanding unresolved disputes and to be 10 certain both parties were well prepared with all required materials prior to the 11 scheduled hearing. Plaintiff strenuously resisted this request, first by refusing to 12 respond to Defendant's July 16 email request for more than twelve hours, even while 13 Plaintiff sent unrelated emails to Defendant during this time period. Only after a 14 second email pointing out Plaintiff's refusal to respond did Defendant receive a reply
15 to the request for a call. Plaintiff continued to resist the request going as far as stating 16 "I agree, but the Judge directed me to obtain a court reporter when I call you. Let's 17 try to reach some agreements first without adding the cost and expense of a court
18 reporter. For instance, I think we can agree both parties have complied with Rule 19 26a1." Defendant's understanding of Rule 26(a)(1) and its specific reference to the 20 "name and, if known, the address and telephone number of each individual likely to 21 have discoverable information" was in part, a reason Defendant sought telephone 22 communication on this matter. Plaintiff's growing resistance caused Defendant to 23 believe this was yet another attempt to coerce Defendant into signing a Stipulation of 24
25
26
27
28

1 Undisputed Facts that would dispose of the controversy surrounding the identity of 2 Queen Tut and also put Defendant at disadvantage with regard to other matters. This 3 persistent attempt by Plaintiff to pressure Defendant to agree to the suggested
4 stipulations furthered Defendant's belief that among other things, Holmes played a 5 key role in laying the groundwork required to bring about this legal matter, as well as 6 her subsequent efforts to convince Defendant Goodman to answer the Complaint 7 rather than challenge the venue or other aspects. Eliminating Holmes as a party to 8 this case and avoiding bringing her as a witness would clearly benefit Plaintiff and 9 multiple points of evidence indicate Plaintiff has repeatedly attempted to do both of 10 these things. It remains Defendant's belief that Plaintiff has made numerous attempts 11 in opposition of good faith, to take advantage of Defendant's pro se status and 12 deceive him into agreeing upon stipulations in favor of Plaintiff. While the July 20, 13 2020 call was cordial, and the true identity of Queen Tut was discussed, no formal 14 resolution has been reached by the parties with regard to Holmes' identity at the time
15 of this writing. In email communications related to the call transcript which Plaintiff 16 has refused to provide, it was brought to Defendant's attention that Plaintiff had not 17 received an email of August 19, 2019 which included Defendant's response to 18 requests for admissions. Plaintiff has failed to answer subsequent inquiries as to why 19 this issue was not raised during the July 20, 2020 phone call. The email and the 20 responses have been included in the supplemental materials. Defendant's frustration 21 with attempts at communicating in good faith are amplified by Plaintiff's refusal to 22 provide a transcript of the July 20, 2020 call. In an email dated July 22, 2020 23 Counsel for Plaintiff Biss stated "the Judge directed me to arrange a court reporter for
25
26
27
28

1 all calls with you. I did that. The Court did not direct me to order a transcript of the 2 calls. I don't think it is necessary to order a transcript of our 7/20 call, but if you 3 think there is some issue that you want to present to the Court on 7/27, and the 4 transcript is necessary, you should contact the court reporter and order the transcript.

5 I have given you here [sic] email address. She is with LegalMediaExperts.

6 <https://www.legalmediaexperts.com/>.” In searching through previous emails,

7 Defendant did locate an unidentified email address in the CC field of a message from 8 Mr. Biss. This was presumed to be that of the court reporter but was not specifically 9 identified as such by Mr. Biss. Defendant has no recollection and no emails that 10 confirm a specific delivery of the court reporter's name and contact information.

11 Defendant remains challenged by Plaintiff's ongoing efforts to frustrate good faith 12 efforts at communication. At the time of this writing, the transcript is not ready for 13 inclusion in Defendant's submissions. Defendant is even more concerned by

14 Plaintiff's repeated attempts to introduce evidence into the record that is not entirely 15 representative or at worst, even misrepresents the true nature of ongoing

16 communications. Defendant reminds the court that Plaintiff has repeatedly ignored
17 orders to make good faith efforts in reaching a settlement. During settlement

18 conferences with Magistrate Judge Young, Plaintiff merely repeated their offer which 19 had been rejected previously and in fact failed to make any good faith effort to 20 explore settlement. During the July 20, 2020 phone call counsel for Plaintiff yet

21 again dismissed Defendant's earnest plea requesting counsel confer with Plaintiff and 22 reconsider his position on settlement, given the court's assertion that this matter

23 should not even be in federal court. As of July 23, 2020, Mr. Biss has made no

1 indication that Defendant's request for such reconsideration has been considered by 2 or even offered to Plaintiff. These and other actions cause Defendant to believe that 3 Mr. Biss has deliberately and continually obstructed good faith efforts and instead 4 continued this abusive and unjust application of the civil legal process.
5

6 5. During the July 20, 2020 phone call various questions about emails, senders, 7 recipients and attachments came up. Several documents were requested by Mr. Biss.
8 Those documents were provided to Mr. Biss during or directly following the phone
9 call via electronic delivery and he has confirmed receipt of them. Mr. Biss 10 specifically requested a recording of a phone call and the transcript of that phone call 11 referenced in an email with General William F. Kernan. Due to the nature of the 12 method used to transmit those documents to General Kernan in the original message 13 and the passage of time since that message was sent, the attachments themselves were 14 no longer available however identical copies of those documents are available on 15 YouTube, both the audio recording of the call and the embedded closed captioned
16 transcript (<https://youtu.be/aUeNLLWikiM>). This link was provided to Mr. Biss 17 along with a copy of the transcript which was the source for the closed caption 18 document associated with the video. These supplemental documents are submitted to 19 the court along with this certification.
20
21

22
23 Respectfully submitted July 22, 2020
